

HUES

HUES (Humans Uniting for an Equal Society) is an auxiliary nonprofit organization of LAHR (Lansing Association for Human Rights). HUES is dedicated to serving and advocating for the LGBTQ community in Lansing, Michigan.

Education

Leadership

Community

Through educational events, presentations, and monthly discussions, HUES aims to create conversations around the major issues surrounding the LGBTQ community today, and emphasizes giving all marginalized identities a chance to both speak out and be listened to.

HUES, through mentorship and community building, aims to foster leadership within young adults in the LGBTQ community, giving people the chance to take on leadership roles in the organization and to become connected with leadership in other organizations in the area.

Through social events and community outreach, HUES aspires to bring together LGBTQ people in Lansing, giving people a place where they can feel they belong with others that have lived experiences similar to theirs.

What is HUES?

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Nullam fermentum tortor ex, non placerat dolor ullamcorper in. Etiam elementum aliquet pharetra. Nullam porta porta est, non fringilla urna tincidunt sit amet. Cras varius vestibulum mauris in sodales. Aliquam erat volutpat. Mauris placerat hendrerit eros ut molestie. Nullam accumsan nibh sem, vitae consectetur purus volutpat tincidunt. Nulla libero justo, vulputate vel mauris eget, aliquet tincidunt ligula.

HUES Board

Chair

Alysia Hodgson

Vice Chair

Marissa Connell

Treasurer

Makayla Mainhood

Ambassador

Katie Trudell

Communication Strategist

Michael St. Charles